

SAGA – THE PHALOSA

Edition No. 4 May – Jun 2010

NO. 4 MAY - JUN 10

SAGA
CREATIVE PEOPLE IN BALI

Sabbatha Rahzuardi
Carlos De La Rúa
Jazz by The Sea
Moja Jewellery
Shamans of The Night In Sibeirut
Indiana Kenanga Restaurant
Paulus Sutrisno
Museum Pasifika
The King of Kerambitan
The Mertasari
Ducati Monster 984 Special

Jazz By The Sea

(featuring JAZZANOVA) - some of the best funk, soul and jazz heard on the island lately, presented by AKASHA Villas:

"In Hinduism Akasha means the basis and essence of all things in the material world; the smallest material element created from the astral world. It is one of the Panchamahabhuta, or "five great elements", its main characteristic is Shabda (sound). In Hindi and Gujarati, the meaning of Akasha is sky.

The Nyaya and Vaisheshika schools of Hindu philosophy state that Akasha or ether is the fifth physical substance, which is the substratum of the quality of sound. It is the One, Eternal, and All Pervading physical substance, which is imperceptible.

According to the Samkhya school of Hindu philosophy, Akasha is one of the five Mahabhutas (grand physical elements) having the specific property of sound." Wikipedia

Following up the concept of this villa enterprise and taking advantage of the Java Jazz Festival, event organizer and manager, Nicolas Sebaying, recruited international performers creating a memorable evening, and perhaps turning point in Balinese jazz concert history saying, "This is all about creating beautiful moments, with taste, vision and generosity..."

The event was held at the stunning sea front grounds of The Phalosa, a brand new venue adjacent to the villas that provided for sunset scenes and invaluable space for dance enthusiasts. And yes, especially those who believe to have seen better days in relation to sentiment and feelingful passion in music had a great time! We let our hair loose in rhythm. Others stood in awe of the happening and plugged in to the good vibes.

Smooth jazz artists like Brian Simpson, Steve Harvey and Michael Johnson started the ball-game with Balawan and band living up, followed by Berlin-based Jazzanova (modern jazz/soul) featuring Smoothie, Paul Randolph and ending off with the hot voice and moves by Afroditte and Breakestra playing soul-funk from LA.

Grand finale was an enlightening jam session inviting Ryo, Stefano, Sylvia van Swieten, Micky and others - divine! I would say it was almost spiritual! Catch it next time around as Nicolas promises, "Be ready for next one, I can already tell that it will be incredible!"

Photos & Text by Jeane

wayanbalawan.com
www.jazzanova.com
www.breakestra.com
www.phalosa.com
www.theakashabali.com

JAZZ BY THE SEA

(featuring JAZZANOVA) - some of the best funk, soul and jazz heard on the island lately, presented by AKASHA Villas:

“In Hinduism Akasha means the basis and essence of all things in the material world; the smallest material element created from the astral world. It is one of the Panchamahabhuta, or "five great elements"; its main characteristic is Shabda (sound). In Hindi and Gujarati, the meaning of Akasha is sky.

The Nyaya and Vaisheshika schools of Hindu philosophy state that Akasha or ether is the fifth physical substance, which is the substratum of the quality of sound. It is the One, Eternal, and All Pervading physical substance, which is imperceptible.

According to the Samkhya school of Hindu philosophy, Akasha is one of the five Mahābhūtas (grand physical elements) having the specific property of sound.”
Wikipedia

Following up the concept of this villa enterprise and taking advantage of the Java Jazz Festival, event organizer and manager, Nicolas Sebayang, recruited international performers creating a memorable evening and perhaps turning point in Balinese jazz concert history saying, “This is all about creating beautiful moments, with taste, vision and generosity..”

The event was held at the stunning sea front grounds of The Phalosa, a brand new venue adjacent to the villas that provided for sunset scenes and invaluable space for dance enthusiasts. And yes, especially those who believe to have seen better days in relation to sentiment and feelingful passion in music had a great time! We let our hair loose in rhythm. Others stood in awe of the happening and plugged in to the good vibes.

Smooth jazz artists like Brian Simpson, Steve Harvey and Michael Johnson started the ball-game with Balawan and band livening up, followed by Berlin-based Jazzanova (modern jazz/soul) featuring Smoothie, Paul Randolph and ending off with the hot voice and moves by Afrodite and Breakestra playing soul-funk from LA.

Grand finale was an enlightening jam session inviting Ryo, Stefano, Sylvia van Swieten, Micky and others - divine! I would say it was almost spiritual! Catch it next time around as Nicolas promises, “Be ready for next one, I can already tell that it will be incredible!”

Photos & Text by Jeane

www.phalosa.com

www.elitehavens.com